Hw1 2024 Answers

Cal 1.

What percent of the California sample answered that passing Proposition 64 was mostly a good thing? (Please refer to the valid percent column)

60.7%

Cal 2.

What percent think the use of marijuana should be legal?

63.8%

Cal 3.

What percent are in favor of providing a path to citizenship for undocumented immigrants?

80.4%

Cal 4.

What is the most common response to the political orientation question?

Middle-of-the-road (40.7%)

Cal 5.

What percent say they are very liberal?

13.1%

Cal 6.

Are women or men more supportive of legal marijuana?

Men

Cal 7.

Are women or men more supportive of providing a legal path to citizenship for the undocumented?

Women

Cal 8.

Among which political orientations are a majority of respondents opposed to legalized marijuana?

Somewhat and very conservative.

Cal 9.

Among which substantive (disregard the 'don't knows') orientations are a majority opposed to a pathway to citizenship for the undocumented?

None

Cal 10.

Based on these results would you say gender or political orientation is a more substantial predictor of attitudes toward immigration?

Political orientation

Tex 1.

What is the least frequent response by Texans regarding the legal possession of marijuana?

Not legal under any circumstances (16.6%)

Tex 2.

What is the most common response?

Small amounts legal for any purpose (34%)

Tex 3.

Irrespective of the strength of opinion are Texans more likely to support or oppose a pathway to citizenship for illegal immigrants?

Support (30.5% + 31.6% = 62.1%)

Tex 4.

What is the most frequent self reported ideology among Texans?

middle of the road (25.5%)

Tex 5.

What percent of Texans say they are extremely conservative?

15.7%

Tex 6.

Are Texas women or men more supportive of the unrestricted possession of small amounts of marijuana?

Women

Tex 7

Are women or men in Texas more likely to support a pathway to citizenship illegal immigrants?

Women (on both strong and somewhat support).

Tex 8.

Among which political orientations are a majority of Texans opposed to the possession of marijuana under any circumstances?

none

Tex 9.

Among which ideological orientations are a majority opposed to a pathway to citizenship for illegal immigrants?

somewhat and extremely conservative.

Tex 10.

Based on these results would you say gender or political orientation is a more substantial predictor of attitudes toward immigration?

Political orientation